

City of Charlotte, North Carolina Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Making Our Environment Right (MOER) Foundation, Inc. will be uniting the Charlotte community in a campaign to supply underprivileged children and classrooms with school supplies needed to carry out their education and promote academic excellence; and

WHEREAS, the MOER Foundation's mission is to identify and create social support, education, and economic opportunities to individuals and families for the enrichment of the global community and the MOER Foundation acknowledges the need to supply our youth with educational supplies; and

WHEREAS, Sponsor-A-Mind® is the MOER Foundation's largest program of which, the primary purpose is to supply underprivileged school children and classrooms in less affluent neighborhoods with basic education materials. Sponsor-A-Mind® emphasizes the idea that contributing school supplies is not simply a matter of easing a disadvantaged family's needs. Sponsor-A-Mind® contributors provide backing for the recipients' academic development and future; and

WHEREAS, in the last two years, the Sponsor-A-Mind® program has distributed over $65,000 worth of school supplies in Charlotte, across the United States and abroad by partnering with several local and national organizations:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Patrick L. McCrory, Mayor of Charlotte, do hereby proclaim September 19, 2008 as in Charlotte, and call upon all our citizens, young and old, to assist us in creating and promoting a better education for our youth.

WITNESS MY HAND and the official Seal of the City of Charlotte.

Patrick L. McCrory
Mayor
